AMERICAN WATER HEATERS AND NASHVILLE PREDATORS TEAM UP TO SALUTE THE TROOPS

Ashland City, Tenn. (April 10, 2007)—American Water Heaters, a Tennessee-based manufacturer of residential and commercial water heaters, joined the Nashville Predators Foundation recently in recognizing local soldiers during the Predators' Salute the Troops Night.

“American Water Heaters is delighted by the opportunity to participate in this event and support our troops,” stated Jason Rowell, American Brand Manager.

American's donation went towards purchasing tickets for troops stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky. Approximately 1,200 troops joined loyal Predators fans at the Sommet Center and received recognition for their heroic efforts throughout the evening.

As a supporter of “Salute the Troops” night, American was recognized on the jumbo-tron during the game against the Columbus Blue Jackets.
